Raising School Ready Readers is a series of five family literacy activity nights for parents and children ages 3-6. The program gives parents ready-to-use ideas on how to turn everyday experiences -- like fixing meals, giving baths, or riding in the car -- into learning activities. The Raising School Ready Readers program can help parents prepare their children to succeed in school and gain independence while having fun together as a family. Sessions focus on developing six core literacy areas: Concepts of Print, Phonological Awareness, Letter-Sound Knowledge, Oral Language, Comprehension, and Writing.

Light refreshments will be provided at each session and sibling care is available. Cost is $5.00 per family. Registration form and payment are due by September 19.
